 TYPIST Second Yr. Typing Class

"COLD FINGERS"

When the thermometer rises and groans rise from all; When the heat seems to beat down like molten lead into a iron pot; There is one place where coolness can be found - the typing room. No matter how hot it is out side one can always seek relief in this room. During the hottest days the students find it comfortable always in the typing room. But what of those days when the thermometer drops. Then the typing room becomes a deep freeze. No matter how much effort is made to warm it up, it still is cold. The heater doesn't work with effectness and there is no heat to come in from the halls. The students certainly like a cool room during the hot days but they sure would like a warm room during cool days, for who can type with hands stiff from cold?

Not so many years ago, the term "patriot" applied to a brave person so filled with love and belief in his country that he was willing to channel his life in a way that would preserve the liberty it stood for. Often he sacrificed his family, comfortable living, even his life that his descendents might live under liberty. This, he thought, would be "living" in highest form, freedom to live and be, work and do as an individual -- a distinct part of the whole governmental set-up. This is what he wished for his descendents.

World Wars I and II, and the Korean War was fought to protect "Liberty under Law". There was much unhappiness. Many died--but for a purpose.

We are their descendents. Upon our shoulders, not too many days away, will fall the responsibility of defending America. Big assignment? It is! And it takes preparation. We must know much more than the teen-aged patriot of George Washington's day who went out to fight for his country armed only with gun and purpose. Life is much more complex today. We must be ready.

Instead of a Kennedy in office, one day there will be one from among us. We all must work and learn. A country can't be run by a president alone. We have to find out what it's all about. The majority of us probably know more about Christine and the adventures of Mutt and Jeff than the affairs of our country. Where did we get such false security? What can we do about it? We have a huge task ahead of us. Will we let history say that our generation failed?

This year the Telletorium will feature a series of articles by students who will discuss our roles as teen-aged citizens.

NEW TEACHERS

We have six new teachers in our school this year. New high school teachers are Miss Jean Warthon, Mrs. Elizabeth Parker and Mr. Jack Gwaltney. Elementary teachers are Mrs. Anno Goldwire, Mrs. Judy J. Turpin and Mr. John Coates. To familiarize the students with them, we are publishing the following information about them.

Miss Warthon is a resident of Lynchburg. She attended Salem College in Winston-Salem, N. C., and Lynchburg College. This is her first year of teaching. She states that she has enjoyed her job at Big Island very much, thus far.

Mrs. Parker lives in Boonsboro and is the proud mother of three children. She attended Mars Hill Junior College and Wake Forest College. This is her first year of teaching.

Mr. Gwaltney lives in Lynchburg. He graduated from V. P. I. He taught at New London last year. He states that he likes teaching at Big Island and that it is also in a more convenient locality.

Mrs. Turpin came to our school after marrying a native of Big Island who works at the mill. She attended Bedford College and this is her first year of teaching.

Mrs. Goldwire also lives in Big Island and her husband works at O. I. She attended Florida State University. She last taught at Snoko, Cay, Marsh Harbour Great Abaco, Bahamas, B. W. I. Upon asking about the intriguing name, she related that she taught in an old river boat, with seven grades and only nine pupils. We hope to print more about her former teaching position in later editions.

Mr. Coates is a resident of Lynchburg. He attended Mars Hill Jr. College and Wake Forest College.

This is his first year of teaching.

The Tellitorium Staff wishes to extend hopes of a successful school year to each of our new teachers.

An eastern farmer went looking for a healthful place to live in the Southwest. In one small Arizona town he approached an old timer sitting on the steps of the General Store. "Say, he asked what's the death rate around here?" "Same as it is back east, 'Eub," he replied, "one to a person."

ELEPHANT JOKES

Betty W.: "Judy, why don't more elephants go to college?"
Judy: "I don't know, why?"
Betty: "Because not too many finish high school."

Linda Y.: "Bonnie, do you know how to keep an elephant from charging?"
Bonnie: "Stand behind a tree?"
Linda: "Nope, just take away his credit card."

Sharon D.: "Ricky, why do elephants wear green tennis shoes?"
Ricky: "To go with her other clothes?"
Sharon: "No, so he could hide in the grass."

George W.: "Sharon, do you know why elephants wear red tennis shoes?"
Sharon: "To hide in red grass?"
George: "No, to hide behind strawberries."

This year we're going to dedicate a special section of our Joke page to many elephant Joke fans. Anyone wishing to put an elephant Joke in the paper please see the Joke editor, Connie R.

SNOOPER

While snooping around I've got hold of some juicy bits of news.
Tony Ware, whose class ring are you wearing? Did Woody get his on the same night?

Peggy F., who were you with and just what were you doing on the school bus last Sat. night?

Nancy B., how did you get home Saturday night after the game?

Jon W., what are you trying by sleeping in your necktie?

Sharon and Judy, would you two happen to know any Altavista boys?

June, do you have a private chauffeur for a sister?

Joe C., where did you go over the week-end?

Gov. 12 Class, did you really take your book to the tournament?

4th and 6th Grade Combination

We are enjoying being in a 4th and 6th Combination.

Instead of having class officers we have a judge and jury. The officers are:

Judge	Janice Branch
Recorder	W. L. Wood
Bailiff	Roger Branch
Prosecuting Att.	Nadine Massie
Defending Att.	Nancy Byers
Traffic Officers	Ann Neas

Carol Hamilton
Robert Dawson
Danny Wilcher

Clerk Vickie Mann
Jury Foreman Kenneth Goff
The rest of the class is on the jury.

The 6th grade is making an art mural of different periods of history beginning with the cave man.

Each Monday and Wednesday, the 6th grade watches Science on T.V. with Mr. Shotwell and on Friday we have music with Mrs. Goldwire.

FALL

Fall is a pretty sight,
It might be fun to sleep in woods at night.
Gold leaves are lying on the ground.

Some leaves are light brown,
There are all kinds of leaves,
Red, yellow, brown, gold, and sometimes green,
This is why we have such a lovely scene.

Connie Turpin 4th Grade

On October 2 Big Island girls clashed with Bedford on our home court. It was a practice game for both teams, with the best two of three games. Big Island girls won their first victory of the season by defeating Bedford.

Then on October 20 Big Island girls met Bedford girls on their court. It was a hard fought game with both teams trying for a victory, Bedford its first, and Big Island its second. Scores were close but not close enough. Big Island girls came out victorious for the second time and came home with a double victory.

BOONSBORO WINS OPENER

Excitement filled the air at Big Island High School, for it was September 20 and time for the first volleyball game of the season. The game was with Boonsboro on their court. The two teams played the best two out of three games. Although Big Island girls did their best, it wasn't good enough and Boonsboro came out victorious.

MR. ADKINS: "Let's take the example of the busy ant. He works all day, every day. Then what happens?"

WOODY: "He get's stepped on!"

* * *

Communist father: "What did you learn in school today?"

Daughter: The Theme Song-Worder Where Your Father Went When He Talked About the Government."

Thursday night Big Island girls took the first game in a sweeping victory, 21-5 over Boonsboro.

The second game we narrowly won 21-19.

The starting lineup was:

Linda Snead
Nancy Burks
Margie Fainter
Tera Yoder
Linda Yoder
Diane Tomlin
Peggy Feagans
Rayetta Ross

The following night Big Island girls lost the first game to New London 21-14. Our girls took the second game 21-6, but New London retaliated taking the last game 21-17.

BOYS SPORTS

The boys won the first game as they beat Boonsboro on the losers court. It took three games as the Islanders played poor in the first game but they came back strong to sweep the next two and the victory.

When the boys met Coach Baker's team the second time, they were in better form, but far from their best, as they disposed of the Baker boys in two straight games for a 2-0 record. All the boys got to play in this game as 4 subs were in this game as the final point was scored.

The tide was changed when New London invaded. Big Island on Friday night. The Group II boys won the first two games but not without a fight from the Blue Imps. In the second game, the Islanders ran up a 11-3 score before they began to falter.

The volleyball tournament was played Friday night at the Bedford Armory. Although our boys put up a good fight they lost their first two games to Boonsboro and Staunton River. Better luck next time boys.

FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

It gives me great pleasure to welcome each of you back to school this year.

I hope that everyone had an enjoyable summer of swimming, sleeping late, staying out in the fresh air (day and night), having picnics, and just plain resting.

As we embark on another year, I would like for you to think seriously about the following items for this year:

SPORTSMANSHIP

No matter where we go in life or what type of work we are engaged in we come face to face with some form of sportsmanship every day.

We as teachers and you as students must always maintain a clear idea of sportsmanship in our minds.

I believe that we can follow this idea and also the idea of citizenship by taking an active part in some type of athletics.

To help point this out I will try to analyze the word "athletics".

A-stands for ambition--ambition to be the best possible player in one's position on the team.

T-stands for training--the first requisite of any athlete.

H-stands for honesty--honesty to oneself and one's teammates.

L-stands for loyalty--loyalty to team and to school.

E-stands for eligibility--without which an athlete is valueless to his team.

T-stands for trustworthiness--a trait all good athletes possess.

I-stands for improvement--which is always observable in good athletes.

C-stands for courage--courage to do the thing that is right regardless of how the game is going.

S-stands for sportsmanship and stick-to-itiveness, the best trait in any athlete.

Remember that everyone should have all the traits that I have given above.

Good luck to you this year and if I can help you in any way, please come by the office and talk your problem over with me.

Mr. Wooldridge

VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT

On Friday night, October 13, the volleyball tournament was held at Bedford Armory. Big Island girls lost their first game to Bedford but won their next two against Boonsboro and Staunton River. They lost the fourth game to Montvale.

The next night the last game of the season was held at New London. The New London girls defeated our girls in the first two games.
